

KRONG!

Krong! said the alien. An alien has landed in Jake's backyard, but Jake cannot understand the language he is speaking. Jake lets his parents know and then tries to greet the alien in various languages, but the alien doesn't understand him, either. Jake is convinced that the gift the alien is holding is for him. Then his parents share some astonishing news with Jake that...

Reader's Opinions

Fun story about our assumptions based on language and appearance--with a twist. Could be a fun read-aloud leading into a creative writing or drawing prompt.

Cute, and humorous. Great unexpected ending that had the kids cracking up!! loved the notion of learning that not everyone communicates in the same language, but with a little determination and acceptance, communication can be achieved!
