Reader's Opinions

This book collects the best of Frayn's columns from the Guardian and Observer newspaper, and they're well worth reading if you're into that type of thing. The best of them easily rival Robert Benchley or Woody Allen's New Yorker pieces, and they make you realise just how mediocre most of our newspaper humorists are today.

Very funny and clever man! Most of this is way before my time, but it is still wonderful. Highly recommend the audio version read by Martin Jarvis. Hysterical...
