

LA GRANDE PORTE

La Grande Porte, c'est un astéroïde artificiel construit il y a des centaines voire des milliers d'années par une civilisation disparue, les Heechees. Ces extraterrestres mystérieux ont laissé derrière eux d'innombrables astronefs, programmés pour des destinations inconnues... Pour les aventuriers qui s'y risquent, c'est souvent la disparition corps et biens...

Peek Inside the Book

Only you have to keep practicing and remembering. Frederik Pohl, Gateway //

When you spend weeks on end close to another person, so close that you know every hiccup, every smell and every scratch on the skin, you either come out of it hating each other or so deep in each other's gut that you can't find a way out. Klara and I were both. Our little love affair had turned into a Siamese-twin relationship. There wasn't any romance in it. There...

Reader's Opinions

I wanted to like this book but ended up annoyed and slightly disgusted. I was hopeful at first because the sci-fi elements were interesting and seems to have potential (the Heechee ships, Gateway, the food mines etc). I'd also recently finished his enjoyable capitalist-dystopian novels The Space Merchants and sequel The Merchants' War....

At first I was so excited about this book. I mean think about it: a long gone race of super intelligent beings leave us with an inheritance of a gateway to 1000 locations where unspeakable riches, both financial and scientific, await their rediscovery. The premise sounds great, right? I mean who wouldn't wanna go on an adventure in...
