Reader's Opinions

I'd never heard of FB Meyer before but a friend lent me this book and I'm glad he did. Bob Holman's biography of this 19th and 20th century church leader is inspirational. If you live in London you should read it because it forms part of the Christian history and heritage...

This is a great biography for those who are interested in observing how ministers and churches in the past of faced the challenges of urban decay, neighborhood decline, substance abuse, sexual trafficking, gender inequalities, etc., from a ministry-Christian perspective. Meyer was a gracious socially active pastor, who was just as much...
